SANTA CLAUS

Wants All The Children to Write Him a Letter and Tell Him What He Bring Them.

HE READS THE JEFFERSONIAN

Last Monday The Jeffersonian received the following letter which every boy and girl in Jefferson county should read or have read to them.

Candytown, Topyland, Dec. 1, 1907.

To the Editor of The Jeffersonian:

DEAR SIR: Please tell all the children in Jefferson county that I will soon leave my home to make them my annual visit, and that I shall try not to miss a single boy or girl who for the past twelve months has been a good child. This year I have more good things to eat and prettier toys of all kinds than ever before. I have been busy making lots of things for the children and I will not disappoint them. Last year I used an automobile to make my trip but this Christmas I hope there will be plenty of snow on the ground so I can use my sleigh and the reindeer. I shall travel very fast, because there are so many children who are expecting me and I want to visit them all. Tell them to hang up their biggest and longest stockings and to be ready on Christmas Eve night. That may know just what each of my children want, ask them to please write me a letter and send it to your office so you may print it in The Jeffersonian. I read your paper each week and shall know just what to bring.

Good-bye: Your old friend, SANTA CLAUS.

Every boy and girl who expects Santa Claus this year is therefore asked to write a short letter to Santa Claus telling him what to bring. Mail it to SANTA CLAUS, JEFFERSONTOWN, KY. In Care of The Jeffersonian.

We will print all the letters and send a copy of the paper to Santa Claus. Make your letters short, write very plainly, and on one side of the paper only. Be sure to sign your name.

Saltin' Down Meats.

It is time for killing boys now. Can I get the young farmers to listen to one of fifty years' experience in saltin' down meat? Never kill and salt down meat the same day. Never salt it down when frozen. It is best to let it hang out on the poles if not too cold. If the temperature is above 32 degrees, take out the leaves and ribs; cut out a 4-inch strip down their back. Out early next morning; if temperature is above 30 degrees spread your meat out so you can cut it. Let it lay a few hours, then rub it well with salt. Pack down hams first, with all the salt you can get to lay on the flesh side, then shoulders on top of hams, with one inch of salt on flesh side, then the sides with half an inch of salt. Let it lay four weeks; take it up, wash off all the salt; pepper with black pepper, hang up and smoke to your liking. Remember it is the salt left on the meat when hung up that makes it too salty.

Mr. Louisville Advertiser :

Last year I killed six hogs, 275 pounds weight. It turned warm after I began to kill by 9 a. m. By 2 p. m. it began to rain. I went to work as I have said, cut off heads, spread them and covered with tarpaulin for the night. Next morning I had meat spread out by 10 a. m. By 11 a. m. the temperature was up to 70 degrees I went to salting down. It being so warm, I received a bulk of meat with salt, let it lay four weeks, hung it up, and I never had better meat especially the joint meat. Good enough for a king.—W. T. Clore, in Farmers' Home Journal.

PLEASURE RIDGE PARK.

Mrs. George Stinson, Who Has Brought Suit For Property Unintentionally Deeded, Is Very Ill—Misses Buchhold Entertain.

Mrs. Nellie Merker returned last Friday from Louisville where she has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Robert Fort.

Misses Meme and Linnie Hikes, of Louisville, were guests of Misses Jett and Mabel Kerrick Sunday at Elmwood.

Mrs. Geo. Stinson, who has brought suit to recover some property that she claims she deeded unintentionally to her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Newkirk, and her son, John Stinson, is very ill at her home. Dr. J. W. Blanton, who is attending her, is doubtful of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Stephen Ormsby, who have been spending ten days with relatives here and in Louisville, left Sunday for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will reside.

Mrs. Claude McFarlan, who has been ill with a severe cold, is slightly improved.

The Rev. M. D. French and Mrs. French, of Jeffersonville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. Scott and Mrs. and Mrs. J. G. Scott for several days.

Misses Carrie and Augusta Buchhold entertained informally at their home last Thursday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Mamie Clure, of Louisville. The house was beautifully decorated in yellow and white, chrysanthemums and delightful refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Rose Wilson Alice Cook, Marie Buchhold, Ora Belle Maryman, Anna Laura Clark, Charles Heuser, Will Kerrick, Harry Kerrick, West Hill, James Kuhns, Elisha Walk, Edward Wartele. The prizes were won by Miss Ora Belle Maryman and Will Kerrick.

Little Alberta Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Baker, is ill with scarlet fever. The other two daughters, who were ill with the same disease, have entirely recovered.

Mrs. J. B. Smith is spending some time in Louisville with her daughter, Mrs. John Cade, who is quite ill.

PROGRESS

Is Being Made In The Effort To Renovate The Old Cemetery At Jeffersontown. Officers Elected.

Several citizens of Jeffersontown and vicinity, interested in having the old cemetery made attractive, met at the office of The Jeffersonian Monday and effected a temporary organization by electing Earl M. Bryan, chairman, and Ed Hoke, secretary. A committee of five to solicit contributions for the purpose of having the cemetery cleaned of bushes, briars, undergrowth, etc., was appointed as follows: Fred Myers, J. P. Frederick, L. C. Thomas, Miss Carrie Hardin and Mrs. Viola B. Howell. The chairman is now engaged in making a list as far as possible of those buried in the cemetery.

Another meeting will be held at the office of The Jeffersonian Saturday afternoon, Dec. 14, at 3 o'clock, at which time the committee on contributions will make a report. All interested persons are invited to attend and lend their assistance in reclaiming the cemetery and making it beautiful instead of an eyesore.

INCREASED

Vote in Popularity Contest Shows Interest on the Part of Candidates and Their Friends.

LEADING CANDIDATES CLOSE.

Miss Mary Bell Rudy, St. Matthews, 1,000
Miss Mary Hoke, Jeffersontown, 800
Miss Nellie Jones, Highland Park, 500
Mrs. E. P. Sweeney, Jeffersontown, 300
Miss Margaret Adams, Highland Park, 200
Miss Lillias Netheron, Worthington, 200
Miss Carrie Hardin, Jeffersontown, 200
Miss Bettie Hoke, Harrods Creek, 200
Mrs. Geo. Woodson, R. R. 13, Jefferson, 200
Miss Louise Owens, Jeffersontown, 100
Miss Blanche Cominger, Jeffersontown, 100
Miss Dorothy Skiles, Buchel, 100

Six of the popularity contestants increase their votes materially this week, with Miss Nicholson still leading. However, Miss Rudy and Miss Mary Hoke are close up to the leading contestant. Miss Dorothy Skiles has been nominated as Buchel's most popular young woman, and her friends will doubtless see that she has hearty support in the race.

A suggestion as to Christmas gifts may help some of the candidates. There are many former citizens of Jefferson county now living elsewhere who would appreciate above almost anything else the weekly visits of their "home paper." Why not send them The Jeffersonian for a year? It will remind the recipients each week of the thoughtful giver and will tell them everything that is happening "back home." Incidentally, each subscription will give one hundred votes to your choice as the most popular woman in the county. Thus you may "kill two birds with one stone"—a dollar, a gift for the one who is absent, and a gift for the girl at home.

A mistaken idea is prevalent that the nominating ballot printed each week is good for one hundred votes; this is true when used to nominate a new candidate only. It does not count when sent in for a candidate already in the contest.

When shopping in Louisville this week or next be sure to call on Jas. K. Lemon and Son's on Fourth avenue, and ask to see The Jeffersonian diamond; it's a beauty, and to be appreciated should be seen.

REV. NAPHEY

Of Palestine, Dressed in Native Costume, Lectured at Meadow Home Baptist Church Last Sunday.

Okolona, Dec. 2.—Rev. Naphey, of Palestine, who is now in the Baptist Seminary preparing to be a return missionary, gave a highly interesting lecture at Meadow Home Baptist church Sunday evening. Rev. Naphey has excellent command of our language, though having been here but three and one half years, and fluently described the customs, religion, etc., of his native country. He wore the native costume and had four other costumes worn by men and women of Palestine with him. He is the favorite son of his parents, and according to the ancient custom, still retained, has a "coat of many colors" just the same as that Joseph's parents gave to him.

The large house was beautifully decorated in white and green and the color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Miss Sherman Dodge and Mrs. L. P. Moremen assisted in receiving the guests. About twenty guests were present. SHETLAND PONY Belonging to George Bickel Reaches Age of Forty-three Years—Was Trained Circus Animal.

Prestonia, Dec. 2.—"Bessie" a Shetland pony belonging to the family of George H. Bickel is dead at the age of forty-three years. Mr. Bickel bought the pony from a gentleman in Portland, twenty-three years ago. He obtained the animal from Dan Rice's circus, at that time one of the big traveling shows. The pony was then considered very old. Bessie was a "calico" pony, so called from her peculiar spotted coloring of brown and white. She was intelligent and well trained and could perform many tricks. The last year she aged into helplessness and Mr. Bickel had her killed.

MAKING MONEY.

There are two very satisfactory ways of making money and adding to one's prosperity. One is to keep a bank account with a good reliable up-to-date bank and the other is to place the surplus on time deposit and get interest for the capital that can be spared in this manner. The Jefferson County Bank, Jefferson town, Ky., employs all the methods of modern banking and pays four per cent. on time deposits, and solicits your business by mail or in person, assuring you prompt attention and most satisfactory results. In keeping a bank account and paying all of your bills by check the banker becomes your "bookkeeper" without this channel can be referred to by a positive record. We want your business and money, and it will be promptly acknowledged with gratitude. Cumberland telephone connections.

HAVE you read the President's message?

"Of the making of books there is no end." T. Roosevelt has just issued the latest. It is not destined to be one of the "six best sellers."

"THERE should be no tariff on wood pulp," Roosevelt. Otherwise to publish his annual messages would be too expensive to afford more than a limited circulation.

GEN. Booth of the Salvation Army says that he expects, when he gets to heaven, a lot of newspaper men will tackle him for an interview. Of course; if anywhere, they'll be found in heaven.

A negro, clad in four suits of clothing, fell from the seventh floor of a warehouse at Pleasure Row, and escaped with a broken wrist. He shouldn't have forgotten the cuffs essential to such full dress.

A Chicago man who owed a Milwaukee bank $25, offered a $1,000 bill in payment, but was refused his change in currency, bank certificates being tendered instead. It's surprising that he was not given the difference in the stuff that made Milwaukee famous, as that has a wider circulation than anything else issued by the Wisconsin city.

YELLOW journalism had much to do in destroying public confidence during the recent financial stringency. The big dailies exaggerated conditions and many of the "rural rosters" followed their example with the result that a bad matter was made worse. Facts are they are should be the main stock in trade of every paper in the land. There was no "panic" nor any occasion for one.

AFTER an honorable and useful career extending over a period of thirty-eight years, the Carrollton Democrat's plant at Carrollton, Ky., was entirely destroyed by fire last week. The sympathy of the state's newspaper fraternity is extended to its editor, E. C. Smith, together with the hope that he may soon resume the publication of his paper.

To The Woods.

The quail season is upon us, and the festive rabbit gambols across the frosty meadow.

The time of year has come when the little creatures of the field and forest whose pursuit gives delight to the legitimate sportsman who does not play for the mere pleasure of killing, hearken to the bay of hounds, the bark of pedigreed fire whippers or the crack of distant guns and start off to lead the chase in a spirit of happy bravado which will endure until it becomes too strenuous. The game really joins in the sport, in the pursuit of which either it or the huntsman is doomed to defeat. This is a good time of the year to be off to the woods, and if you are not adept with the shotgun or rifle there are hickory nuts and walnuts waiting for some fortunate explorer to release them from their imprisonment, and there is cider fresh from the press to wash them down when they have reached their ecstatic destiny. And there is pumpkin pie at the farmhouse and popcorn by the evening fireside if you would have it. In fact, there is a world of joy out of doors and in the cozy dwellings of those who live in the open. Find it and you will have made a discovery more precious than the capture of the elusive dollar; find it and you will have drunk at the fountain of perpetual youth and happiness.—Ex.

It Helps You.

The home newspaper is in no sense a child charity. It earns twice over every dollar it receives, and it is second to no enterprise in contributing to the upbuilding of a community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publishers, and in calling for the support of the community in which it is published it asks for no more than in all fairness belongs to it, though generally it receives less. Patronize and help your paper as you would any other enterprise because it helps you and not as an act of charity.—Ex.

THE president of the Dairymen's Protective Association denies emphatically that Louisville dairymen have formed a trust. He says: "Of course, we get together and each fellow gets up and tells how much it costs him to run his place and what the price will have to be to make any money. And then we have an understanding as to what we shall charge. I reckon you could call it a trust if you wanted to, but I don't think it is." An "ammosia" cuss, ain't he? Probably he agrees with the Chicago dairymen, too, who call a mixture of skim milk and acids "buttermilk."
